THAT HEADSTRONG BOY.

The English Government Has Withdrawn Its Threat to Spank the Khedive.

The boy who is the Khedive of Egypt has taken it back and said he didn't mean it, and so the English government has withdrawn its threat to spank him. The incident has much excited the English and British position before the other powers. The exhibition of headstrong stupidity by the modern pharaoh serves as an abundant excuse for England to continue the protectorate until the lad develops ordinary discretion. The first suspicion that the Khedive was prompted by European mischief makers to insult his unwelcome British guests is no longer held in view of the utter folly of his outbreak.

The matter is regarded merely as another proof of the incompetence of the younger for serious responsibilities. The government accounts argue that his renewed display of hostility toward the English will make the task of British supervision exceedingly difficult and may lead to serious native outbreaks.

The Khedive's silly conduct and the sad death of Sir Gerald Portal have upset an admirable diplomatic arrangement. It had been decided that Lord Cromer should go to St. Petersburg, and that Sir Gerald Portal should succeed him at Cairo. The government was only awaiting Sir Gerald's restoration to health to carry the arrangement into effect.—London Letter.

A Boy's Growing Up.

A very remarkable case is that of a young man of this county named Chandler. For years his mouth has shown a tendency to grow up. Four years ago it became so small, it was feared he would starve, and a fund was raised by neighbors, and he was sent to Chicago, where the mouth was cut to the natural size and pieces of flesh grafted into the corners. This has been overcome, and his mouth is rapidly growing up again, the opening at present not being larger than an ordinary goose quill, through which he takes all his nourishment. It is thought that he must eventually starve to death, as there seems no way of preventing the complete closing of the mouth. Otherwise the young man seems healthy and is capable of doing considerable work.—Black River Falls (Wis.) Letter in Minneapolis Journal.

The Press composing room has been equipped with typesetting machines. The operation of these machines will be given to the old compositors of the paper, who will soon be adepts therein. The machines are new, and the workmen will not for a time be familiar with their working, and it is possible a great many mistakes, some of them do not richly yours, will creep into the paper, to the annoyance of our readers, but this trouble will only be temporary, and we hope our condemned setters will be able to set all the wrongs right pretty soon. Meanwhile we beg the kind indulgence of our friends.—Cleveland Press.

His Heart Grieved by a Bug.

A case of a boy being killed by a bug that gnawed his heart deeply interests local physicians. Samuel Lennox, 7 years old, died a few days ago with very peculiar symptoms. The boy had been sick for some time, but his case was different from any other. A post mortem examination revealed that part of the heart had been eaten away by an insect, causing death. Nearly a year ago the boy drank water from a brook and swallowed a water bug. The insect ate its way through the boy's stomach and then began devouring the heart, the boy bleeding to death.—Muncie (Ind.) Dispatch.

Fast Day Doomed.

It is said that the movement for the abolition of Fast day is much stronger at the statehouse than it was last year, but that it is not strong enough to win yet. However this may be, there is no doubt that it is destined to keep right on growing. It is bound to triumph in the end.—Boston Herald.

THE LAST OF THE BUFFALO.

One of the most serious acts of vandalism that has occurred in this country for many years took place a short time since in Yellowstone National Park. In this park, supposed to be protected by the act of Congress making it a misdemeanor to shoot any wild game within its precincts, were a number of bison, almost the last remaining survivors of those vast herds of buffalo which once roamed over the western plains in numbers beyond human calculation.

The march of civilization destroyed them, and to-day in the United States there were scarcely a score of the creatures known to exist, aside from the herd in the National Park. These were regarded by the Government with peculiar veneration, and it was hoped that under the watchful care of the division of U. S. troops constantly stationed at the park to protect its treasures, that they might be preserved for all time to come, in order that succeeding generations might have an opportunity to observe living specimens of the most remarkable zoological discovery that the age of man ever saw.

It appears that a few days ago a party of hunters slaughtered the entire herd. The animals were chased into a country where there was deep snow and shot down, the object being to secure their heads which command a high price. As the hunters were preparing to haul away the heads they were captured by the soldiers. The severest punishment which the law allows is not enough in this case. If a town be destroyed by an incendiary, the destruction is only for a time and the city may be built up again fairer and better than before. But here is a crime committed against posterity which no effort of man can replace, and the mind grows resentful in the contemplation of its enormity.

MICHAEL D. HARTER.

Carry the news to Mary. Michael D. Harter has announced his intention not to be a candidate for Congress this Fall, for the reason that he has failed to satisfy his constituents. He will remove to Philadelphia and open a law office. Mansfield, Ohio, is to be congratulated because of the loss of this goldbug scyphand and the Quaker city pitted. If now only that other illustrious tool of the money power, John Sherman, would give the place the benefit of his absence Mansfield might hold up its head once more among respectable communities. Sherman and Harter, the one a great Republican and the other a great Democrat, are as precious a pair of rogues as American politics has furnished, and yet, although claiming fealty to antagonistic political parties, has any one ever heard of John Sherman and Michael D. Harter ever being other than in perfect union upon every thing? Indeed, in an interview recently published in the Cincinnati Enquirer, we find John Sherman lamenting that Mr. Harter "is going to resign at the threshold of his career and move to Philadelphia."

Strange thing, a great Republican lamenting that his Democratic colleague is going to leave him. But during the last year the latent fellowship between the two old parties has been exemplified in many ways so that, as an exchange truly says, "tear off the labels and shake up a Republican and a Democrat in a bag, and on taking them out you would not know which was which."

POPULIST PARTY COMMITTEE.

The National Central Committee of the Populist party, in session at St. Louis, concluded its work Friday and issued an address declaring the union of the leaders of the old parties under Cleveland and John Sherman has forced down the volume of the circulation medium to a single gold standard, thereby enhancing the purchasing power of money and depressing the price of all products of labor and the earning of wage-workers.

The address opposes an international conference to regulate the financial power of this country, but favors a financial system distinctly American, with the free coinage of gold and silver at the ratio of 16 to 1 and the issuance of standard money exclusively by the Government without the intervention of banks.

Resolutions were adopted against the passage of the Wilson bill unless accompanied by the income tax to meet the deficiency, also requesting Populist Representatives to vote against the bill if the deficiency is to be supplied by the issue of bonds.

EDUCATED UP TO IT.

The speakers last night, who contended that we would get free coinage as soon as the people of the country were educated up to it and that the acts of the Republican party was always a reflex of public sentiment on this as well as every other question, evidently did not desire to push the proposition to its logical conclusion. If we are only to get free coinage through the Republican party, and that only when a sufficient number of representatives of that persuasion are educated up to it, at the same ratio that it has required twenty-two years to educate thirteen Republican Congressmen up to the proper point, in order to get a majority of the Lower House alone, it will take exactly 801 years, 2 months and 24 days.

A PERVERSION OF TRUTH.

A Newspaper is Known by the Methods it Employs.

A newspaper's general reliability may be known by its methods. A newspaper that will deliberately falsify another's position is deserving only of contempt, and usually succeeds in getting it in liberal quantities.

Under the caption, "Casting insinuations, Blavatsky too fresh with his passes," the Reno Gazette of last evening says:

"Blavatsky's slur yesterday morning on Jerry White, not passing the volunteers to the scene of Monday's snow slide is about in keeping with its other methods. Mr. White has no more right to pass a crowd over the road than anybody else, and the reflections Blavatsky tries to cast on him is in very poor taste, to say the least," etc.

Following is the statement in question:

"The party of Odd Fellows and members of the Guards mentioned in yesterday morning's JOURNAL, which organized night before last to go up to State Line and assist in the search for the snowed-out woodchoppers, after waiting until nearly 4 o'clock yesterday morning for the delayed train to start, received word from Superintendent White that they would be charged 75 cents each for fare. This was not in accordance with what they understood the night before, as they thought they had been granted free transportation. The matter was discussed and it was decided to go up by private conveyance."

Only a deliberate intention to pervert the truth can construe it into any reflection upon Mr. White or anyone else.

There are two statements of fact concerning the matter in the paragraph—That the rescuers waited all night for the train to go up, believing that they had been granted free transportation; and, second, that just before the train started they received a dispatch from Jerry White to the effect that they would each have to pay 75 cents fare. Both of these statements are true, and we challenge our esteemed contemporary or anybody else to prove the contrary.

The Gazette article then proceeds to jabber all over Mr. White in its characteristic manner as though intending to white-wash him from the JOURNAL's "slur." Mr. White needs no such defense. He is a gentleman, is well known here, is highly respected and no one stands higher than he in the estimation of the writer of that article.

It is unfortunate that, from some cause or other, he should have been selected at this time as the special object for the Gazette to lavish its friendship.

SITUATION IN SOUTH AFRICA.

Rate of Wages, Cost of Living and Other Interesting Details.

A recent letter from a correspondent contains the following items of interest: Miners thinking of going to Johannesburg would do better by staying at home even if times are very quiet here. The average of miners landing in Cape Town is about ten weekly, and they are nearly all from England. They nearly all branch out for Johannesburg, and naturally the employers prefer an Englishman before an American, and you will find this in all branches of business, professional or otherwise.

The colored people do all the laborious work in the mines, and, as for the positions the white man would take, I suppose there are fifty waiting for one opening. A good miner can earn $25 a week, and I think a good miner can earn more here; and then again, he can live considerably cheaper here. He would have to pay in Johannesburg about $10 weekly, this is speaking of board alone.

When I left Cape Town last May there were hundreds of men in Cape Town from all parts of South Africa looking for employment. Lots of them manage to get down from the interior, and the first chance they have of returning to England, either working their passage or otherwise, they accept. The boat I came back to London on was the Tartar. Eleven worked their way home; they had to refuse many applicants, a stowaway is a common occurrence.

Board in Cape Town is $5 25 a week, and if you want a position as clerk, bookkeeper, telegraph operator, etc., they would offer you what they would call "a start," that is to say it doesn't matter how competent you may be, you have to commence with $5 or $8 a week, and you think yourself lucky if you can get that. There are, on an average, one hundred applicants for each situation.

There are two or three prices on some of the necessities in Cape Colony, and this is the cheapest place to live; house rent from $5 weekly; flour, six cents per pound; potatoes, thirty cents per pound; butter, fifty to seventy-five cents per pound; bacon, thirty-five cents per pound.

As many people are returning from South Africa as are going, that is, between four and five hundred weekly. Men that do get positions, after they have saved, if ever they do, to four hundred dollars, return to England for good.

The correspondent referred to has recently returned to Seattle from South Africa.

GOLD MEDAL ON HONEY.

A. E. Moore's Apiary Leads the World.

A. E. Moore yesterday received his blue ribbon from the Committee of Awards of the World's Columbian Exposition, granted upon his display of honey. The ribbon is a beautiful one and contains fac similes of the signatures of George R. Davis, Director-General; John Boyd Thatcher, Chairman of the Committee of Awards, and W. S. Burnham, head of the Department of Agriculture. In addition to this gold medal Mr. Moore was awarded a gold medal for his honey at the New Orleans Exposition; four bronze medals by the Mechanics' Institute of California, and about a dozen silver medals from the State Fair here. He has now a fine exhibit at the Nevada building at the Midwinter Fair.

A Hard Task.

Those that attended the funeral of the late Robert McBeth at Galena last Sunday had a rough time going up Galena Canyon. From Jake Lick's place the snow must have been from two and a half to three feet deep. A large sled was down the canyon breaking the road, and took up several of the crowd and the horses had a hard pull up the canyon with the empty vehicles.

The different parties left town about 8:30 and did not reach Galena until 12 o'clock. The men of the town worked hard all Sunday morning to break a path from Melander's Hall to the graveyard, the snow being up to the top of the fences that enclosed several of the graves on the silent little knoll. Several of the old residents of Galena says that it is more snow than they have had for several years.—Central Nevada.

UTAH'S BEET-SUGAR FACTORY.

Ogden is to have a factory for the manufacture of beet-sugar. The plant will cost from $700,000 to $800,000, and is to be ready for the consumption of the beet crops of 1895. It will have twice the capacity of the Lehi factory, and will utilize the best crops of Weber and Davis counties.

The only consideration asked by the company is that the farmers of Utah will guarantee 4,000 acres of beets to be consumed by the factory. At a small meeting held at Hooper on Thursday evening 325 acres were guaranteed, with a prospect of at least twice that amount.

The beets of Davis and Weber counties are pronounced the best by the factory at Lehi, and that is the reason the company is so anxious to establish their works at Ogden, asking no bonus and no bounty to establish them or assist them to run.

This is the best proposition that has been made in a long time, and without doubt the farmers will be glad enough to guarantee the required acreage of beets.

With plenty of transportation facilities Ogden is the proper place for the factory.—S. L. Tribune.

Will Not go to the Fair.

The Fremont cannon, the property of the late Captain Pray, is not likely to be seen at the Midwinter Fair, says the Carson News. Two years ago when the Veteran Guard visited Carson arrangements were made to bring the gun here and give it a prominent place in the parade. The transportation wagon arrived in Glenbrook late one day and the driver preferred to wait until morning to put his precious freight aboard. But the best laid plans "gung at a gley" and when morning dawned the cannon had disappeared.

There was no trace of its disappearance, not a mark could be seen to designate what had become of the piece of artillery. The Glenbrook boys treasured the gun and were determined that no one else should have it, fearing that it might never be returned to them. It is effectually concealed and may never again be seen, but it will remain in Glenbrook at any rate, as no one but those concerned in the hiding of the cannon know who did the work and it is not likely the secret will ever be divulged.

In Cold Weather

The most effective method of preventing roughness, chapping and breaking of the skin is to use Cocoon Balm. A few applications will render the skin soft and smooth and it costs only 25 cents per bottle. It gives satisfaction to all who use it.

Dr. C. F. Moore of Elko, Nevada, came in Friday evening to attend the funeral of his brother-in-law, M. F. Wheeler, one of the victims of the disaster at State Line. He was accompanied by his little daughter, Miss Clara Taylor, a sister-in-law of the late Mr. Wheeler, and who is teaching school at Lovelock, also accompanied him.

By all the signs gold will go out this Spring in the usual way, for the Sherman Act exercised no more influence over the movement last year than it did over the action of the tides. Perhaps the Administration, dimly conscious of the utter absurdity of its previous policy, will not become so screechy over the fact. It is not unlikely that the Democratic organs will begin to find out by that time that the exportation of gold is a sign of brimming prosperity. But for all that, out the gold will go all the same. It may be added that in proper season it will also come back again.—S. F. Bulletin.

No West Texas Congressman who voted for free pool will ever see the National Capitol again, except at his own expense.—San Antonio Express (Dem.) And yet somebody said that the tariff was not a local issue.

LaGrippe.

During the prevalence of the grippé the past seasons it was a noticeable fact that those who depended upon Dr. King's New Discovery, not only had a speedy recovery, but escaped all of the troublesome aftereffects of the malady. This remedy seems to have a peculiar power in affecting rapid cures of La Grippe, but in all diseases of the Throat, Chest and Lungs, and has cured cases of Asthma and Hay Fever of long standing. Try it and be convinced. It won't disappoint. Free Trial Bottles at S. J. Hodgkinson's drug store.

The Spleen

—Not the ill-humor you feel like venting upon some offender, but the spleen near the stomach, which supplies the proper amount of blood to the stomach during digestion. But both are affected by a torpid liver. A torpid liver excites the spleen, ill-humor, and destroy the bodily organ; but an active liver, prompted by Simmon's Liver Regulator, destroys the spleen and excites to right action the digestive organs, then no more dyspepsia, constipation and biliousness.
